The Crush Art & Wine Festival

The 1st Annual Crush Art & Wine Festival was a great success!

Attendance was fantastic, the parking lot was full, and cars filled the next field out near Julian Lane. Most of the vendors did well, the music and the food were good, and BackRoads Vineyards did great and want us back.

Special thanks to Mike Foldhazi and Don & Cherol Ockrassa for helping everyone setup and take down booths, cleanup, maintaining trash cans, and a lot more.

SafeQuest Fundraiser
Sunday, Oct 24,
1-4pm

We are helping SafeQuest offer support to abused women. There are a total of 18 booths for artists. The booths are 8' x 8' and will have 2 8-foot tables and one chair. There are no display walls, but we are offering display screens for rent at $6.00 each. SafeQuest is asking for a donation of one piece of artwork for the silent auction and 10-20% of your total sales during the day. Contact Dennis Ariza if interested.

Everyone will be required to show proof of having the Covid Vaccine and wear a mask.

- This is not an FSVAA Event
- Booths have all been taken
